"Elijah's Mermaid" was an amazing novel to read. Like Fox's debut novel, "The Somnambulist", it is a gothic mystery set during the Victorian Era, but (other than the

ELIJAH'S MERMAID.

Elijah's Mermaid begins with the story of Pearl ~ a web-toed child who is found half-drowned and floating in the Thames one night. When taken to live in a brothel, the girl is protected and pampered until she approaches puberty and suddenly comes to realise that she will soon be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

VICTORIAN NOVELS - ESSIE FOX

"Elijah's Mermaid" is harrowing in places, and the first person narration enhances the experience. Fox's characterisation is spot on. Lily's love for her brother, the urgency with which she tries to find him - all of it is real.
