Notes On John Bible Study
Gospel of John Bible Study. The Gospel of John was written by John, one of Jesus' twelve apostles. Even among the twelve, John was one of the three apostles (along with Peter and James) who were the closest to Jesus: The Gospel of John, also called "Book of John," is an eyewitness account written by someone very close to Jesus.

JOHN BIBLE STUDY & COMMENTARY - Every Verse Explained
John served as pastor of the church in Ephesus, which was founded by Paul. It has been the belief of the church down through the years that John wrote his Gospel first, his epistles second, and finally the Revelation just before his death. However, in recent years some of us have come to the position that John wrote his epistles last.

In The Pastor's Study: Bible Study Notes - John 7:14-24
Author - Unlike most of the epistles, the author of "1 John" is never mentioned. However, the early Christian church universally accepted John as the author. In the gospel of John, John never identifies himself by name either (a form of modesty) so it is not surprising that he does not identify himself by name here.

Here is a summary and commentary on First John chapter two. 1 John 2:1-2 Christ our Advocate The Apostle John begins with the purpose of writing this letter by stating, "I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

1 John Chapter 2 Bible Study And Summary
Consider how this study applies to your life. At first glance, the idea of growth might seem unrelated to John 1—we hear nothing of prior weakness in the life of John the Baptist or Nathanael. But then Jesus refers to a man who, despite struggling with flaws, eventually became father of the Jewish tribes.
