Sister Circle/Moon Lodge/Red Tent. Sister Circle/Moon Lodge/Red Tent . I find myself pondering this question over and over. "How might my life have been different if I had a place to go to, to be, to return to, as a woman? Simply put I could exhale. I could plan and rely on those plans to just sit, maybe laugh, learn or share, but just be.

Brother Sun, Sister Moon received mixed reviews on its release. Roger Ebert harshly criticized the film, writing that it had "an excess of sweetness and light", and that its dialogue consisted of "empty, pretty phrasing". The New York Times reviewer Vincent Canby similarly wrote that the film "confuses simplicity with simple-mindedness".
